

HONEYMOON

The Destination: HILTON BORA BORA NUI RESORT & SPA

Why: Waves of romance seem to wash over you, as you bask in the splendor of the Bora Bora sun and sand. Here on the isle of French Polynesia, the allurements begin. Tucked between aquamarine waters and infinite majestic blue skies, the Hilton Bora Bora Nui Resort and Spa nuzzles in a sacred cove of white sand and magnificent lava rock.

Honeymooners' Expectations: If you and your spouse are into seawater activities, Hilton Bora Bora offers an unspoiled private islet, Lazarus blue skies and a stunning lagoon with colorful lively corals and sea creatures waiting to be discovered. Enjoy the gorgeous views and variety of a fusion menu at Iriatai (meaning on the surface of the water), a fine-dining restaurant of Hilton Bora Bora Nui Resort & Spa. Whether it's breakfast, lunch or dinner, you'll fancy the expertly prepared food Polynesian style.

Additional Factors: Watch the sunsets from the terrace of a Polynesian styled beach or hillside villa, featuring wonderful marble tiles, fascinating wood furnishing and precious tapa cloths.

Get Me Booked: www.hilton.com

The Destination: CAP JULUCA, CARIBBEAN

Why: Nestled on the southwest coast of Anguilla and only seven miles away from St. Maarten, Cap Juluca is set down on 179 acres of land and inland waters. The resort has become to the discerning vacationer what the Cipriani is to Venice by offering the privacy and exclusivity that miles of white sand beach allow.

Honeymooners' Expectations: Cap Juluca offers you eighteen separate Moorish-style beachfront villas, each with no more than six rooms or suites. There are also six private pool villas that can be savored as one or up to five bedroom suites. All rooms are lavish with an ocean view and direct beach access. Satisfy your food fetish at five impeccable restaurants and experience the luxury of taste ala Moroccan.

Additional Factors: For a truly exclusive, memorable and romantic experience, the hotel offers a table for two dinner prepared just for you and your spouse on the beach. In the lovely glow of the sparkling stars, this amazing oceanfront setting will be confined to just you two. A private dinner paired with great wines will elevate your special night to the level of perfection!

Get Me Booked: www.capjuluca.com

